REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
2. The patent to DiLullo et al. discloses a method of playing a dice wagering game comprising a betting playing surface and a pair of dice. Bets are placed. The dice are rolled and a first sum is determined. The first sum determines whether the rolling player loses his bet or continues playing. If the player continues, the dice are rolled again and a second sum is determined. The first sum and second sum are added together to produce a total sum, and the player's bets are resolved. The patent to Boylan et al. discloses a method of playing a dice wagering game comprising two pairs of dice. Players place bets. The first pair of dice is rolled and a first sum is determined. The player's bets on the first sum are resolved. The second pair of dice is rolled and a second sum is determined. The first and second sums are added together to produce a total sum, and player's bets on the total sum are resolved.
3. None of the cited references alone or in combination teach the steps of "providing a first group of dice and a second group of dice", "rolling the first group of dice", "paying winnings based on wagers on the number.....equal to the first sum", "paying winning based on wagers on the one of the plurality of possible combinations", "rolling a second group of dice", "paying winnings based on wagers.....equal to the second sum", "paying winnings based on wagers on the one of the plurality of possible combinations", "summing the first and second sums to produce a total sum; paying winnings based on wagers on a number in the predetermined group of numbers that is equal to the total sum", "combining the roll outcomes of all of the dice.....to arrive at a third resulting combination of roll outcomes".

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
